

2005 S.C. Environmental Awareness Award

Promoting Environmental Awareness and Acknowledging Extraordinary Accomplishments in the Protection, Conservation, and Improvement of our Natural Resources

Deadline for Nominations is December 15, 2005

Guidelines for the S.C. Environmental Awareness Award

The S.C. Environmental Awareness Award is presented annually in February. Its purpose is to promote awareness of the environment and acknowledge exemplary accomplishments in the protection, conservation and improvement of our natural resources. Areas of accomplishment include, but are not limited to:

- ☐ Protection/improvement of soil, water or air;
- ☐ Protection, conservation or improvement of natural resource management;
- ☐ Benefits to wildlife (game or non-game); and
- ☐ Increased recreational or aesthetic values.

The recipient must:

- ☐ Be a South Carolina resident;
- ☐ Possess upstanding moral character;
- ☐ Exemplify extraordinary dedication to preserving and improving the environment and natural resources of South Carolina.

Criteria:

Nominations will be judged on the impact of accomplishments. For example:

- ☐ Degree of innovativeness, originality or pioneering that enhance environmental protection and preservation;
- ☐ Degree that contributions promote leadership in preserving and protecting the environment and natural resources;
- ☐ Size, scope and impact of accomplishments;
- ☐ Degree that efforts promote educational opportunities for the public;
- ☐ Degree that accomplishments influence positive changes affecting the environment at the local, state or national level;
- ☐ Short- or long-term benefits to the environment.

Judging:

The S.C. Environmental Awareness Award Committee includes appointees from each of the following natural resource agencies:

- S.C. Department of Natural Resources, Division of Water Resources
- S.C. Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries
- S.C. Department of Natural Resources, Division of Land Resources & Conservation Districts
